There is little doubt that Mr. Samnel J. Tilden's health is rapidly giving away. This is the true reason why he declined to accept the Democratic nomination. The story about his gambols on stairways, and leaping the cow-lot fence, which we heard some months ago, appears to have been purely a matter of imagination. The country need not be startled at any time to hear of his death.

Our Republican brethren held a slimly attended mass meeting at the court house on Saturday evening for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend their Congressional convention at Maysville, on the 9th.
